scosa, the Spastic Centres of South Australia Inc celebrates its 60th Birthday this year.

To launch this milestone, a reception will be hosted by the Governor, His Excellency Rear Admiral Kevin Scarce AC CSC RANR and Mrs Liz Scarce to recognise great friends and supporters.

To be held at Government House on 2nd February, the auspicious event marks 60 year's of scosa as being the eminent provider of day services to people with disabilities.

As Chief Patron of scosa, the Governor will share in celebrating the organisation's history and achievements with scosa patrons, dignitaries, VIPs and invited guests.

"The Governor's Reception is a fabulous way to celebrate our 60th year, which by any measure is a fantastic achievement", said Judy Curran, Chief Executive of scosa.

Throughout 2010 scosa will host a range of fun and incredibly exciting events to celebrate their 60th Birthday so keep an eye out!
