Showdown victory still to be decided

A special guest from Adelaide United will go head-to-head with scosa, the Spastic Centres of South Australia Inc this week.

In scosa's fifth annual Soccer Showdown, more than 150 scosa clients from all over SA will come together and three teams will battle it out for this year's title.

Clients will also take on a player from Adelaide United on the day...Look out Adelaide!

Held during National Cerebral Palsy Awareness Week (August 2-9), the event aims to highlight the abilities and achievements of people with disabilities.

Judy Curran, Chief Executive of scosa, said the Soccer Showdown is an exciting event for clients, staff and the community.

"It's a fantastic opportunity to bring everyone together and it highlights the abilities of our clients" she said.

The Showdown is set to be a gruelling competition, so make your way down to the event to cheer on scosa and Adelaide United.

When: Friday 7 August

Time: From 10:30am

Where: St Clair Recreation Centre, 109 Woodville Road, Woodville
